Syrah is the sexiest wine in the Lewis line and our 2003 Napa Valley is as provocative as ever. Crafted from two tiny Syrah blocks near the 1,500' summit of Pritchard Hill, the wine is black as obsidian yet radiant in the glass, with enticing aromas of blackberry, cedar, espresso and oak spice. Anchored by a core of ripe black fruit and deeply infused tannins, this wine sets a course for the horizon and sails across your palate.

“An opulent style, with a rich display of lavish oak, but also a wealth of ripe berry, cherry and cassis flavors. The toasty oak and wild berry and blackberry flavors flow through on the finish, and it gains length and depth on the aftertaste.”
