The source for our Barcaglia Lane Chardonnay is a single rolling vineyard in the Russian River Valley. Developed for us by the Dutton Family in 1998, the site consists of 3 sloping blocks planted to three distinct clones – 15, Dijon 95, and Old Wente – yielding consistently ripe and complex fruit characters. With the 2004 vintage this wine achieves a new level of depth and intensity, with loads of citrus, pear, honeysuckle, cinnamon and exotic spices. Rich and yet crisp, like lemon meringue, the wine is satisfying and delicious.

“A tremendous effort, with wonderful aromatics. Bold, ripe, rich and concentrated, with tiers of fig, apricot, pear and creamy, smoky, roasted marshmallow flavors that zoom on and on, opening new flavor doors on a long, tantalizing finish.”
