Our Napa Valley Chardonnay is created from meticulously managed vineyards in the Carneros and Oak Knoll districts. The nose is packed with apple blossom, pear and vanilla-tinged oak. Rich, ripe and thickly textured, pear and stone-fruit flavors turn creamy on the palate with a broad, round finish and a hint of cinnamon.

“Lewis Chardonnays can unusually be counted on for richness, highly extracted fruit and flamboyant oak, and in 2006 we are pleased to report there are no surprises. Dense but open and easy to access in the nose and very full and fleshy in feel, it is an extravagant, show stopping wine whose pulpy, long-lasting character exhibits extraordinary richness from front to back. It wants drinking with suitably rich foods, and it will shine with the likes of curried Salmon simmered in coconut milk. Not in need of age, it will reward it nonetheless.”
