

2007 Barcaglia Lane Chardonnay

Varietal	100% Chardonnay
Appellation	Russian River Valley, Sonoma
Alcohol	14.5%
Release Date	February 2009
Case Production	600 cases

Our Barcaglia Lane Chardonnay is sourced from a single rolling vineyard in the Russian River Valley, part of the famed Dutton Ranch. Planted for us in 1998, the site consists of 3 sloping blocks planted to three different clones. 2007 was an extraordinary vintage and for the first time ever, we gave our Barcaglia Lane bottling an extra 4 months of barrel aging sur lies. The wine is explosively fragrant and enticing with cinnamon, orange rind, sweet tangerine and honey, together with exotic tropical flowers and spice. Sumptuous citrus core fruits and satiny mouth-feel create a tantalizing middle palate, framed with zesty acidity and a fathoms deep finish.

“A rich, creamy, seductive style, with vanilla, nutmeg and smoky oak scents and ripe, pure, polished pear, fig and melon flavors that are remarkably elegant and stylish, gaining body, depth and complexity. Drink now through 2012.”

- James Laube, Wine Spectator