We've been spinning our wheels trying to capture all the nuance and complexity of our 2007 Hudson Vineyards Syrah - sourced from the famously farmed vines in Napa Carneros. From the start this wine lays-on peppery black plum fruit, sweet and savory oak spices, blueberry, violet, and a hint of flint. Thick-skinned, sinewy black fruit forms a dense core, threaded with truffle and spice, while a beam of acid brings levity, length and focus for a fine finish.

"Tightly wound, firm and focused, offering savory herb, blueberry and wild berry, with hints of mineral, black licorice, spice and cedar. The tightest of the new Lewis Syrah-based wines; best to decant or cellar. Best from 2010 through 2017."
